This document is hereby regraded ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ PAGES
 CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

1. A reliable source confirms previous reports in regard to Müller's negotiations in Berlin. Another highly placed Vatican source admitted knowledge of these negotiations but would not reveal the Vatican's commitments. This source trusts Müller as opposed to Oaks' opinion.
2. Concerning Polish overtures for a modus vivendi through Cardinal Hlond, above source also admitted that negotiations were under way. The east German frontiers will not be openly recognized by the Vatican but it will agree to favor Polish ecclesiastical policy in the former German provinces, and will appoint Polish bishops and clergy.
